HOW TO MAKE MONEY FROM EBAY

Just £37

Meant I Could Give Up My Day Job & make £250+ per week

Hi I'm Tony and I have to tell you this story

The story is about how I turned just £37 into a full time income of £250 +per week from within a couple months and I make money from ebay even when I sleep.

AND YOU CAN DO THE SAME TOO!

Making money from ebay means I have an enjoyable weekend and don't have to worry about getting up early on Monday morning to go to my boring 9-5 job anymore.

I now make a full time income from and when I say a full time income

I'm talking about £250+ a week which might not sound a lot to some people

but to me it meant I could give up my boring 9-5 job. Well actually my job was more like 9-8.

It also enables me to stay in bed longer on a Monday morning. whilst most other people have to get up for work.

Ok so I might still have to get up some time in the day, check my Ebay account on the computer, pack a few packages, take them to the post office, which might take me all of an hour or so in the day to do. And if the weathers looking a bit dodgy outside I might just consider going back to bed again and leaving it all to a bit later OK so its not all an easy life though

Sometimes I have to go back to the computer and list a few other items to sell on Ebay. But to me its better than having to go to work all day for the same sort of money

GIVING UP MY DAY JOB

Giving up my day job happened a couple of months after Purchasing 3

Professional CDs

Getting an Ebay account and getting to know the ropes a bit I followed the steps I heard on the professional CDs I purchased. I was making good money within a couple of months. It felt a bit strange at first not having to get up on a Monday morning to go to work and I sort of felt a bit guilty at first. But guess what I soon got used to it.
